

DECEMBER NEWSLETTER

NEW FACES – Welcome back for College Christmas Break Katherine Lydzey and "Shaman", welcome to new Shilo Boarder Emily Keller and "Magic".

CONGRATULATIONS – Congrats to the Regan family on the sale of "Charmed" to a junior rider from Louisiana, and good luck in their search for a new junior hunter.

CHRISTMAS FIELD TRIP- Yep- going to take any and all that want to go to Six Flags for a Christmas Field trip on Sat. December 17 – Please see the flyer with all the info that was either emailed or mailed to you. Need to know of all that want to go as soon as possible – so all tickets can be purchased together to receive the discounted group rate and so we can reserve the right size bus. Get ready for a great time with all your barn friends and trainers- and maybe even make some new friends.

VET VISIT – Dr. Niblet from the Elgin Vet Clinic will be at the farm December 15-16 to do yearly vaccinations, teeth floating and Coggins test. If you need an insurance exam done – all paperwork must be in barn office before date he arrives (if there is something you need checked on your horse , also let us know by the 14th).

HOLIDAY SCHEDULE – We will be closed – no lessons Sat. Dec 24 – Christmas Eve and Sat Dec 31-New Year's Eve.

UPCOMING SHOWS – I will have a tentative 2012 schedule of "A" shows we will attend within the next few weeks. Centex and TSSA do not publish their schedule until mid-January- but you can count on same months and close to same weekends as last year.
